Phil Gwilliam is a North West-based actor working across film, television, theatre and voice.

He won Best Actor at the 2026 Leverhulme Drama Festival for his performance as Dr Lennon in Killing Time. Screen work includes A Light Through Coloured Glass, Savi and Midas Man, with forthcoming features including Semolina Pilchard, Enter The Furnace and Wings.

Phil is often cast as grounded Northern men, fathers, officials, detectives, witnesses, suspects and men under pressure, with a natural fit for contemporary British drama, crime, thriller and social realism.

Alongside acting, his short script The Last Tackle was shortlisted for the UK Film Festival’s 2025/26 10 Minute Screenplay Competition.

Phil is also an experienced voice artist with a professional home studio, currently heard on Betfred’s Nifty Fifty lottery draws and AVON Worldwide’s campaign against domestic violence.
